

VI Underline the adverbs and state whether they express time,

- place, manner, degree, or cause.
1. Where were you?
2. Susan is very happy.
3. We are leaving tomorrow. _____
4. Most young horses run swiftly. _____
5. Why is he crying?
-

VII Underline each conjunctive and state whether it is an adjective

- or adverb.
1. Show us where you fell. _____
2. She decided which apple she preferred. _____
3. Do you know what he looks like? _____
4. When the bell rings, you may leave. _____
-

VIII Write the correct adjective form and state the degree

- (positive, comparative, or superlative).
1. (pretty) Joan is _____ than you. _____
2. (happy) I feel _____ today. _____
3. (fast) This is the _____ dog in the pack. _____

IX Write the correct adverb form and state the degree.

1. (softly) She sang _____ to the baby. _____
2. (swiftly) Jack runs _____ than Fred. _____
3. (clearly) Of all the boys he speaks _____ . _____

X Underline the conjunctive pronoun and state the antecedent.

1. The man who bought my car works here. _____
2. The boy whose jacket I found gave me a rose. _____
3. I bought the dress that was in the shop window. _____
4. Grandma sent me a sweater which she made. _____

XI Underline the conjunctive pronoun and state whether it is used

- as the subject, the complement, the object, or the object of the
- preposition.
1. Tell me for whom you baked this pie. _____
2. The police discovered who the speeders were. _____
3. I do not know whom she invited to the gala. _____
4. Do you know who wrote this memo? _____

XII State the case of the underlined conjunctive pronoun.

- (subjective, objective, or possessive).
1. The children of whom I speak are in the park. _____
2. That is the man who painted my house. _____
3. Do you know whose car this is? _____
4. Did he say whom he saw? _____