

VI Underline the adverbs and state whether they express time,   place, manner, degree, or cause.

- 1. Where were you?  place
- 2. Susan is very happy.  degree
- 3. We are leaving tomorrow.  time
- 4. Most young horses run swiftly.  manner
- 5. Why is he crying?  cause
-

VII Underline each conjunctive and state whether it is an adjective  or adverb.

- 1. Show us where you fell.  adverb
- 2. She decided which apple she preferred.  adjective
- 3. Do you know what he looks like?  adjective
- 4. When the bell rings, you may leave.  adverb
-

VIII Write the correct adjective form and state the degree    (positive, comparative, or superlative).

- 1. (pretty) Joan is prettier than you.  comparative
- 2. (happy) I feel happy today.  positive
- 3. (fast) This is the fastest dog in the pack.  superlative

IX Write the correct adverb form and state the degree.

- 1. (softly) She sang softly to the baby.  positive
- 2. (swiftly) Jack runs more swiftly than Fred.  comparative
- 3. (clearly) Of all the boys he speaks most clearly.  superlative

X Underline the conjunctive pronoun and state the antecedent.

- 1. The man who bought my car works here.  man
- 2. The boy whose jacket I found gave me a rose.  boy
- 3. I bought the dress that was in the shop window.  dress
- 4. Grandma sent me a sweater which she made.  sweater

XI Underline the conjunctive pronoun and state whether it is used  as the subject, the complement, the object, or the object of the  preposition.

- 1. Tell me for whom you baked this pie.  object of preposition
- 2. The police discovered who the speeders were.  complement
- 3. I do not know whom she invited to the gala.  object
- 4. Do you know who wrote this memo?  subject

XII State the case of the underlined conjunctive pronoun.    (subjective, objective, or possessive).

- 1. The children of whom I speak are in the park.  objective
- 2. That is the man who painted my house.  subjective
- 3. Do you know whose car this is?  possessive
- 4. Did he say whom he saw?  objective