

I Underline the verbals and state whether they are infinitives, gerunds, or participles.

1. Mark went to the lake to fish. infinitive
2. Marching briskly, the band crossed the field. participle
3. He was arrested for speeding. gerund

II Underline the prepositional phrases and state whether they are adjective phrases or adverb phrases.

1. The bobcat prowled through the woods. adverb
2. The clothes on the line fluttered gently. adjective
3. Across the prairies galloped the wild horses. adverb
4. Students from the school organized a bottle drive. adjective
-

III Underline the noun phrases and state whether they are noun
 prepositional phrases, noun infinitive phrases, or noun gerund phrases.

1. On the stormy sea can be adventuresome. prepositional
2. His job at the game is keeping score. gerund
3. The children like to study dinosaurs. infinitive
-

IV Underline the adjectives.

1. This red ball is better than the blue ball.
2. Which dress is the prettiest?
3. Several Greek olives were in my salad.

V Underline the adverbs.

1. They walked slowly and carefully down the very steep hill.
2. Why are you cleaning the car now?
3. Put the cups here and the plates there.

VI Underline the conjunctive and state whether it is an adjective or an adverb.

1. I know when the letter arrived. adverb
2. He listed which children were absent. adjective
3. We fish where the river bends. adverb
-
-